

ARTFORUM

PRESENT

MALLIKA SARABHAI'S

the
COLOURS
of her heart

A ROAR FOR WOMEN'S FREEDOM
AND AN EMERGING INTERNATIONAL SISTERHOOD

Directed by:

MALLIKA SARABHAI AND YADAVAN CHANDRAN

Written and sung live by:

SAMIA MALIK

A dance, theater, music, video art performance featuring Mallika Sarabhai and Samia Malik with the Darpana performing group

EVERSON MUSEUM OF ART, SYRACUSE
FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 2019 AT 7:00 PM

TICKETS FREE FOR EVERSON
MEMBERS. $8 FOR NON-MEMBERS.

Sponsored by: South Asia Center, College of Arts and Sciences Ray Smith Symposium, the Ford-Maxwell Professor of South Asian Studies, the Everson Museum of Art, Departments of Art and Music Histories and Women's and Gender Studies, Moynihan Institute of Global Affairs, Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Indian Community Religious and Cultural Center (ICRCC), Syracuse University SPIC-MACAY, and the generous donors to the Agehananda Bharati Memorial Fund.

For more information or to request accessibility arrangements, please contact Emera Bridger Wilson, elbridge@syr.edu.