

Syracuse University

M.A. PROGRAMS IN ART HISTORY

Full Fellowships, Tuition Scholarships, and Teaching Assistantships Available

Pursue your interests with one of our two acclaimed programs:

M.A. in Art History Main Campus

Contact: Wayne Franits,
Interim Director, Graduate Studies
wefranit@syr.edu

With the Main Campus program, you'll get a comprehensive overview of art history allowing the pursuit of specialized research interests.

Both programs emphasize the development of research and critical thinking skills, written and oral communication, and working with local museums and archives.

Florence M.A. in Italian Renaissance Art

Contact: Sally J. Cornelison,
Director, Florence Graduate Program
sjcornel@syr.edu

The Florence program is dedicated to the history of Italian Renaissance art and includes one year of study in Florence, Italy.

Alumni of Syracuse University's prestigious art history graduate programs have successful careers in:

- Academia and higher education
- Museums and galleries
- Arts leadership
- Arts-related professions

ART HISTORY

Syracuse University
College of Arts & Sciences
Art & Music Histories

308 Bowne Hall
Syracuse NY 13244
315.443.4184

amh.syr.edu

APPLY NOW! Applications are due January 15, 2019.