It All Started with a Guitar in My Living Room: Music and 21st Century Religious Growth

The Department of Art and Music Histories presents the current Carole and Alvin I. Schragis Faculty Fellow, Dr. Deborah Justice.

What musical practices do two of Syracuse's fastest growing congregations share at their roots? Join Dr. Deborah Justice for a presentation analyzing these faith communities' worship musics as a means to investigate broader national upheavals within America's religious soundscape.
